1. References listed above. References are UNCLASSIFIED.

2. (~~SECRET~~) I have changed the instructions for rendering medical aid to an injured person in East Berlin to comply with provisions to reference A. All US officials involved here recognize fully that an effort to transport wounded refugees to West Berlin is much more desirable from a psychological public relations and humanitarian standpoint that it is to take the individual directly to an East Berlin Hospital.

3. (~~SECRET~~) However, the solution presented in reference B. does have tripartite agreement. I believe that we could not get agreement on bringing refugees to West Berlin. Public would doubtless learn of differing French instructions when they assume responsibility 1 September 1962. Since Berliners have been told by their press that ambulance could not bring refugees to a West Berlin Hospital, believe that public reaction to lack of agreement by Allies could be equally or more serious than reaction to an East Berlin destination for the refugee. Further it is the humanitarian aspect not the political which is more important in this matter.

4. (~~SECRET~~) In view of the foregoing and also of our need for British and French support in other critical areas, such as the passage of Soviet Guards to the war memorial in APOC, I suggest reconsideration of recommendation that
